Thank you for giving through the Los Angeles Unified School District Consolidated Charitable Campaign. Fund Distribution Agencies do not provide goods or services in return or exchange for their contribution.

For over a decade, the Sharing Brings Hope Consolidated Charitable Campaign has raised donations in your schools and offices. Every February and March, LAUSD's staff, teachers and students contribute time, passion and donations to the Sharing Brings Hope campaign. LAUSD employees are generous, giving people who really care about our communities and the people who live in them.

The Sharing Brings Hope Campaign joins together many of the most prominent and effective charitable federations in Los Angeles. This campaign funds over 700 local charities that reach out to the communities of Greater Los Angeles and the people who live in them. LAUSD employees have started four of the participating agencies. This really is YOUR campaign. Your support funds all twelve of these hardworking agencies.

- The Asian Pacific Community Fund programs include: student tutoring, adult education and youth leadership programs and supports over 25 charities.
- Brotherhood Crusade provides job training, teen counseling, as well as financial and supportive services to multi-cultural programs that address health, education, social welfare and economic development issues.
- Community Health Charities of California raises funds for over 40 health-oriented charities that conduct research, provide patient services, and distribute information. Our charities cover the health needs of everyone from infants to seniors. Your dollars go to the nearest branch of the charity you choose.
- Earth Share of California supports member groups that promote vital programs for an environmentally sustainable life style for all residents of greater Los Angeles.
- The Hispanic Scholarship Fund provides the Latino community more college scholarships and educational outreach support than any other organization in the country.
- The Kathryn Kurka Children's Health Fund provides glasses, dental care and other medical care for LAUSD students who have no other resources.
- The LAUSD Employee Sponsored Scholarship Fund assists graduating seniors with financial assistance that allows them to attend colleges and universities.
- The Los Angeles Trust for Children's Health provides essential healthcare services for LAUSD students who have no other resources.
- The United Latino Fund provides funding for training for many Latino social service organizations that in turn, provide much needed services to the people of Los Angeles County.
- The United Negro College Fund is the nation's oldest and most successful minority higher education assistance organization. UNCF awards more financial assistance to African American students than any other entity beside the government.
- The United Teachers Educational Foundation prepares, trains and guarantees teachers have the skills to best instruct their students. .
- United Way of Greater Los Angeles helps "bridge the gap" in Los Angeles County by supporting more than 250 local charities that help youth succeed, strengthen families and assist people in need through learning, empowering and caring.

Last year the Sharing Brings Hope Campaign raised over $1.2 million dollars!
Your Sharing does bring Hope to many people in greater Los Angeles.
